

Canoe Sprint

Venue: Eton Dorney

Dates: Monday 6 August to Saturday 11 August 2012

The spectacular lake at Eton Dorney will host all of the Canoe Sprint events during the London 2012 Olympic Games. Both kayak and canoe paddlers will compete for Olympic medals over distances of 200m, 500m and 1000m. Canoeing became a full medal sport at the Berlin 1936 Games, and requires great strength, power and stamina for athletes to compete at the highest level.

Races are often extremely tight and hard-fought, making for exciting and compelling viewing. Prestige Ticketing, as the exclusive on-site hospitality partner to the Games, will be providing exceptional viewing from its hospitality venue situated in prime position right on the banks of the water, promising an unforgettable experience in some of the Games' most beautiful surroundings.
