Venue: Aquatics Centre - Olympic Park

Dates: Sunday 29 July to
Saturday 11 August 2012

Developed originally from Gymnastics, Diving made its Olympic debut at the St Louis Games of 1904. Competitors must be incredibly strong, flexible and disciplined in order to perform amazing routines from heights of up to 10 metres. Both individual and synchronised dives are judged for their elegance and skill, with scores adjusted to take into account the difficulty of the dive. A great spectacle, Diving is thrilling to watch, as the athletes aim for inch-perfect performances in a bid to win gold.

Located within the Olympic Park close to the Olympic Stadium, the brand new Aquatics Centre will host all the Diving events. Spectators will be able to revel in the unique and amazing atmosphere that this iconic venue will create during the Games.
