

Gymnastics

Artistic and Trampoline

Venue: North Greenwich Arena

Dates: Monday 30 July to
Tuesday 7 August 2012

The popularity of Artistic Gymnastics soared after the Montreal 1976 Games, with the perfect 10s scored by Nadia Comaneci and Nellie Kim attracting world acclaim. Trampoline Gymnastics joined the Olympic programme in 2000, and has been a big hit with spectators ever since. Requiring grace, strength and skill, Gymnastics demands absolute precision under intense pressure, and is one of the most exciting and popular of Olympic sports.

Artistic and Trampoline Gymnastics will take place in the North Greenwich Arena, one of the world's premier sport and entertainment venues. Prestige Ticketing will exclusively provide private hospitality boxes for the best possible experience of Olympic Gymnastics, giving guests an opportunity to revel in the unique and unmissable atmosphere that the Games creates.
